Welcome everybody.

SHOW BUSINESS:

Leeanne Birch addressed the issue of the show and the poor entry received this year. Joan enquired whether a change in date or only running a Championship show on one day would improve the entries.

It was decided that it was too late to make large changes for 2004. Consideration is to be given to 2005.

It was agreed that the current format for the show will be changed to:

1. Double Obedience Trial to be held on the Saturday
2. Double Agility Trial to be held on the Sunday, with 2 rings
3. Novice Encouragement ring to be included in Obedience Trial
4. Championship show to be run on the Saturday
5. Open show to be run on the Sunday and Aspirant judges invited to judge
6. Property classes will be run in conjunction with the Open show, entered on the day and participants may nominate to judge a specific class.

7. Venue may change pending investigations - Leanne to contact Ritchie Butler regarding Queanbeyan Grounds and look at Murrumbateman.
8. Ideas to be sought for 2005 in the newsletter.

GENERAL BUSINESS:

Sheepdog Training: Further Sheepdog training weekends have been scheduled for 13/9, 4/10, 25/10, 15/11 and 6/12. These are to be advertised in the newsletter.

Moved: C Leatham

It was noted that C & A Baxter registered for four training sessions and paid $60.00. This was due to an error in the original advertisement for the training, which was subsequently rectified. When the registration was received, Nanette contacted the Baxters and explained the situation - no further funds were forthcoming. The club has had to pay $160.00 for the training taken by the Baxters to the trainer and is now out of pocket as a result.

Leanne Birch will write to the Baxters, explain the difficulty and offer an alternative payment.

FUNDRAISING: An ADAC trial has been suggested as a possible fundraiser for the NSWDCBCC. Investigations are now ensuing as to how this can be achieved.
